MOMENT IN HISTORY

Twenty-eight years ago in February 1993, four members of a local family – Raymond Holliman, Diana and Bob Poston, and Linnie Vickrey – pooled their resources and purchased The Guilford Building from Guilford County. The front doors were chained shut and padlocked. Inside, the building was filled with cobwebs and debris. The new owners were not deterred. They cut the chain on the front doors and opened them wide to a new beginning.

NEW PEOPLE EXPANDING BUSINESSES

Professor and author, Jennifer Cazenave, is coming to office 302 in May to write her second book. Presently employed by Boston University and conducting classes remotely, professor Cazenave teaches courses in twentieth and twenty-first century French cinema, literature, and theory. When not teaching, she is researching, writing, and getting published. Her first book was called An Archive of the Catastrophe: The Unused Footage of Claude Lanzmann's "Shoah".

Scott McInnis of McInnis Appraisals, Inc. on the sixth floor is growing his business to meet increasing demand for his company's services. Look for Scott in his expanded offices, suite 608-610.

Once again, Isaac Cain of Ruwack Irrevocable Trust has expanded. His newest space addition is suite 824-826. Isaac retains suite 516-518 for supplemental operations.

Longtime tenant, Safehouse Productions, has taken over room 818-819 in addition to 809-810. Safehouse needed more room to stretch out and take on another person.

AT&T and T-Mobile continue with upgrades and installations on the roof.
