

THE GUILFORD BUILDING NEWS

in its 24th year of publication

STEVE MILLER GONE AT 81

Friend and longtime businessman at The Guilford Building, Steven Gary Miller, passed away on Sunday, January 23, 2022. As so many Guilford Building people have remarked, "We miss him already."

Steve ran Mid-Carolina Marketing Services in suite 322-24 for almost 14 years. He usually stopped in the lobby to visit whenever he was in the building. He was never without a story or a joke or a report about his two accomplished daughters who he raised singlehandedly.

Steve loved UNC Chapel Hill and Tarheel sports. He received his master's degree at Chapel Hill and taught Economics to undergraduates there. He also played on the university soccer team. Later he served as a Captain in the United States Air Force and was recognized for bravery.

His was a life well lived. It was an honor to have known him.

THE AMBASSADORS A NEW, ALREADY POPULAR DOWNTOWN SERVICE GROUP

Uniformed in green shirts, Downtown Greensboro Hospitality Ambassadors are walking our streets every day now to engage the public and to help visitors, business owners, and residents. Last weekend an Ambassador saw two business owners unloading their car in front of the Guildford Building and immediately came up to lend assistance while another Ambassador helped a disabled man on the sidewalk in front of Cheesecakes. Said the business owners, "The Ambassadors seemed to surround us with good will."

The Ambassadors are an extension of Downtown Greensboro, Inc. (DGI), an economic development organization focused on stimulating investment and activity in center city.

Here are some of the services they provide:

- ✦ Direction and way-finding assistance
- ✦ Dining recommendations
- ✦ Cultural and tourist attractions
- ✦ Motorist assistance
- ✦ Hospitality escorts to and from any location downtown
- ✦ Business check-ins and resident assistance
- ✦ Special event safety and information
- ✦ Quality of life assistance and outreach
- ✦ Panhandling and suspicious activity observation and reporting

For service call: 336-447-9530 or reach out to Operations Manager, Shawn Eisenbach at 336-447-9492.

Watch upcoming newsletters for more information about the Ambassadors as they continue to expand their services.

